

Gopal Makes A Garland

Bakula flowers are small, white, star-shaped flowers which are edible and can be cooked as a vegetable.

Gopala Bhan was once making a garland of such flowers.

A friend approached him and asked him..

What are you doing?

I am making a garland for Lord Krsna.

You mean to say that Lord Krsna will come and take that garland from your hand?

Yes, and if he doesn't,
I shall cook it and eat it.

MORAL:

Sometimes, in life, we do not get the things we want, but we must do our best without feeling discouraged and look at it in a positive way. In this case, Gopal wanted Lord Krsna to come and take the garland himself and that is why he was making it with so much love. But, he thought even if Lord Krsna doesn't come, Gopal will use the flowers as his food. In this way he found happiness even in distress.
