

Hunter and The Birds

There was a hunter who wanted to practice his shooting.

So he bought some birds.

And released them.

As soon as the birds flew away, he shot each one of them.

One bird was very cunning.

Instead of flying away he placed himself at the feet of the hunter.

Being so situated, the hunter could not shoot the bird without harming himself.

MORAL :

Instead of flying away from Krsna and being shot down by maya, we should take shelter at Krsna's feet
and then maya cannot touch us.
