

I know Krishna

A lot of Indians claim they "know" Krishna.
So here is a story regarding this...

Once there was a man who brought water to the Lord Jagannath temple everyday.

I don't need to see Lord Jagannatha.

I come here every day and so I can see Him any time I want. Let others see Him.

Several days passed, but the man not even once cared to have darshan of Lord Jagannatha.

One day, the man died suddenly.
Without seeing Lord Jagannatha.

MORAL :

We are fortunate that Krishna Consciousness has become available to us. We are blessed. So, without waiting for a tomorrow which may or may not come, we should start working towards making our consciousness Krishna Consciousness.
