

If There Is Money, There Is Intelligence

One man asked another man:

Are you intelligent?

The other man started searching his pockets.

The first man asked:

Why are you searching your pockets, my friend? I asked if you were intelligent. Do you hide your intelligence in your pockets?

The second man said:

Well, I'm looking for money.

Because money = intelligence.

The second man said:

See, there IS money in my pocket. So, obviously, I AM intelligent!

MORAL:

In this age, money can be instrumental in spreading Krishna Consciousness.
