

Jasovanta Singh
Returns Home

Jasovanta Singh was the commanding general under General Aurangzeb.

He was fighting in a battlefield....

...And he was defeated.

So, he decided to return back to his palace.

But, to his surprise, the palace gates were closed.

So Jasovanta sends a message to his queen...

Inform the queen
I have returned home and ask her why she had closed the gate.

The guards delivers the message to the queen.

She asks...

Who has returned home?

The guard replies...

Jasovanta Singh.

Hearing that, the queen confidently said...

Jasovanta Singh
would either conquer or give up his life. The person at the door must be a pretender.

Hearing the reply, the guard walked away...

MORAL:

This story illustrates the ksatriya spirit. It is the duty of all the ksatriyas to fight till they die. This shows that in difficult situations we must never give up and just go on fighting.
