Krishna tolerated Sisupala's 99 blasphemes.

Only when he blasphemed Krishna the 100th time, Krishna reacted and killed him.

Krishna tolerates the mistakes of his devotees. He is called nimisha and animisha which means that when a devotee makes a mistake, Krishna closes his eyes...

And when the devotee serves Him,
Krishna keeps his eyes wide open.

MORAL:

This story shows that the Lord is impartial, but that doesn't mean we keep committing sinful activities. Because, one day our limit of sins will exceed and that will bring the end of us. We must always engage ourselves in pious activities and avoid committing sins.
