

The Astrologer

An astrologer was gazing at the stars,
oblivious of everything else around him.

Without noticing the ditch ahead, he took the next step while looking at the sky, and there he fell in the ditch.

Help Help!

A passerby saw him and said...

Friend
what happened?
How have you fallen
in this ditch?

I was looking at the stars and walking, so
didn't see the ditch.

Friend,
let stars be where they are.

Look down while walking and not up.
