

The Man who wanted to Taste Sugarcane

A man once told his friend

Sugarcane
tastes so sweet
and yummy.

When
you chew
it ...

What is sugarcane?
How does it look like?

Please describe me
how it looks like so that I can taste the sweetness
of sugarcane.

Oh! You have never seen a sugarcane? It looks like a bamboo log.

Then the foolish friend searched and brought a bamboo log mistaking it for sugarcane.

Let me
enjoy sugarcane
too!

He was disappointed...

MORAL:

Likewise, materialists have been trying to experience joy and happiness through the medium of material body. They ignore the spiritual reality which alone can bring eternal and true happiness.
