

The Man who wouldn't Change his Word

Once there was a professional witness who worked in the court system.

This witness would be repeatedly called for various testimonies.

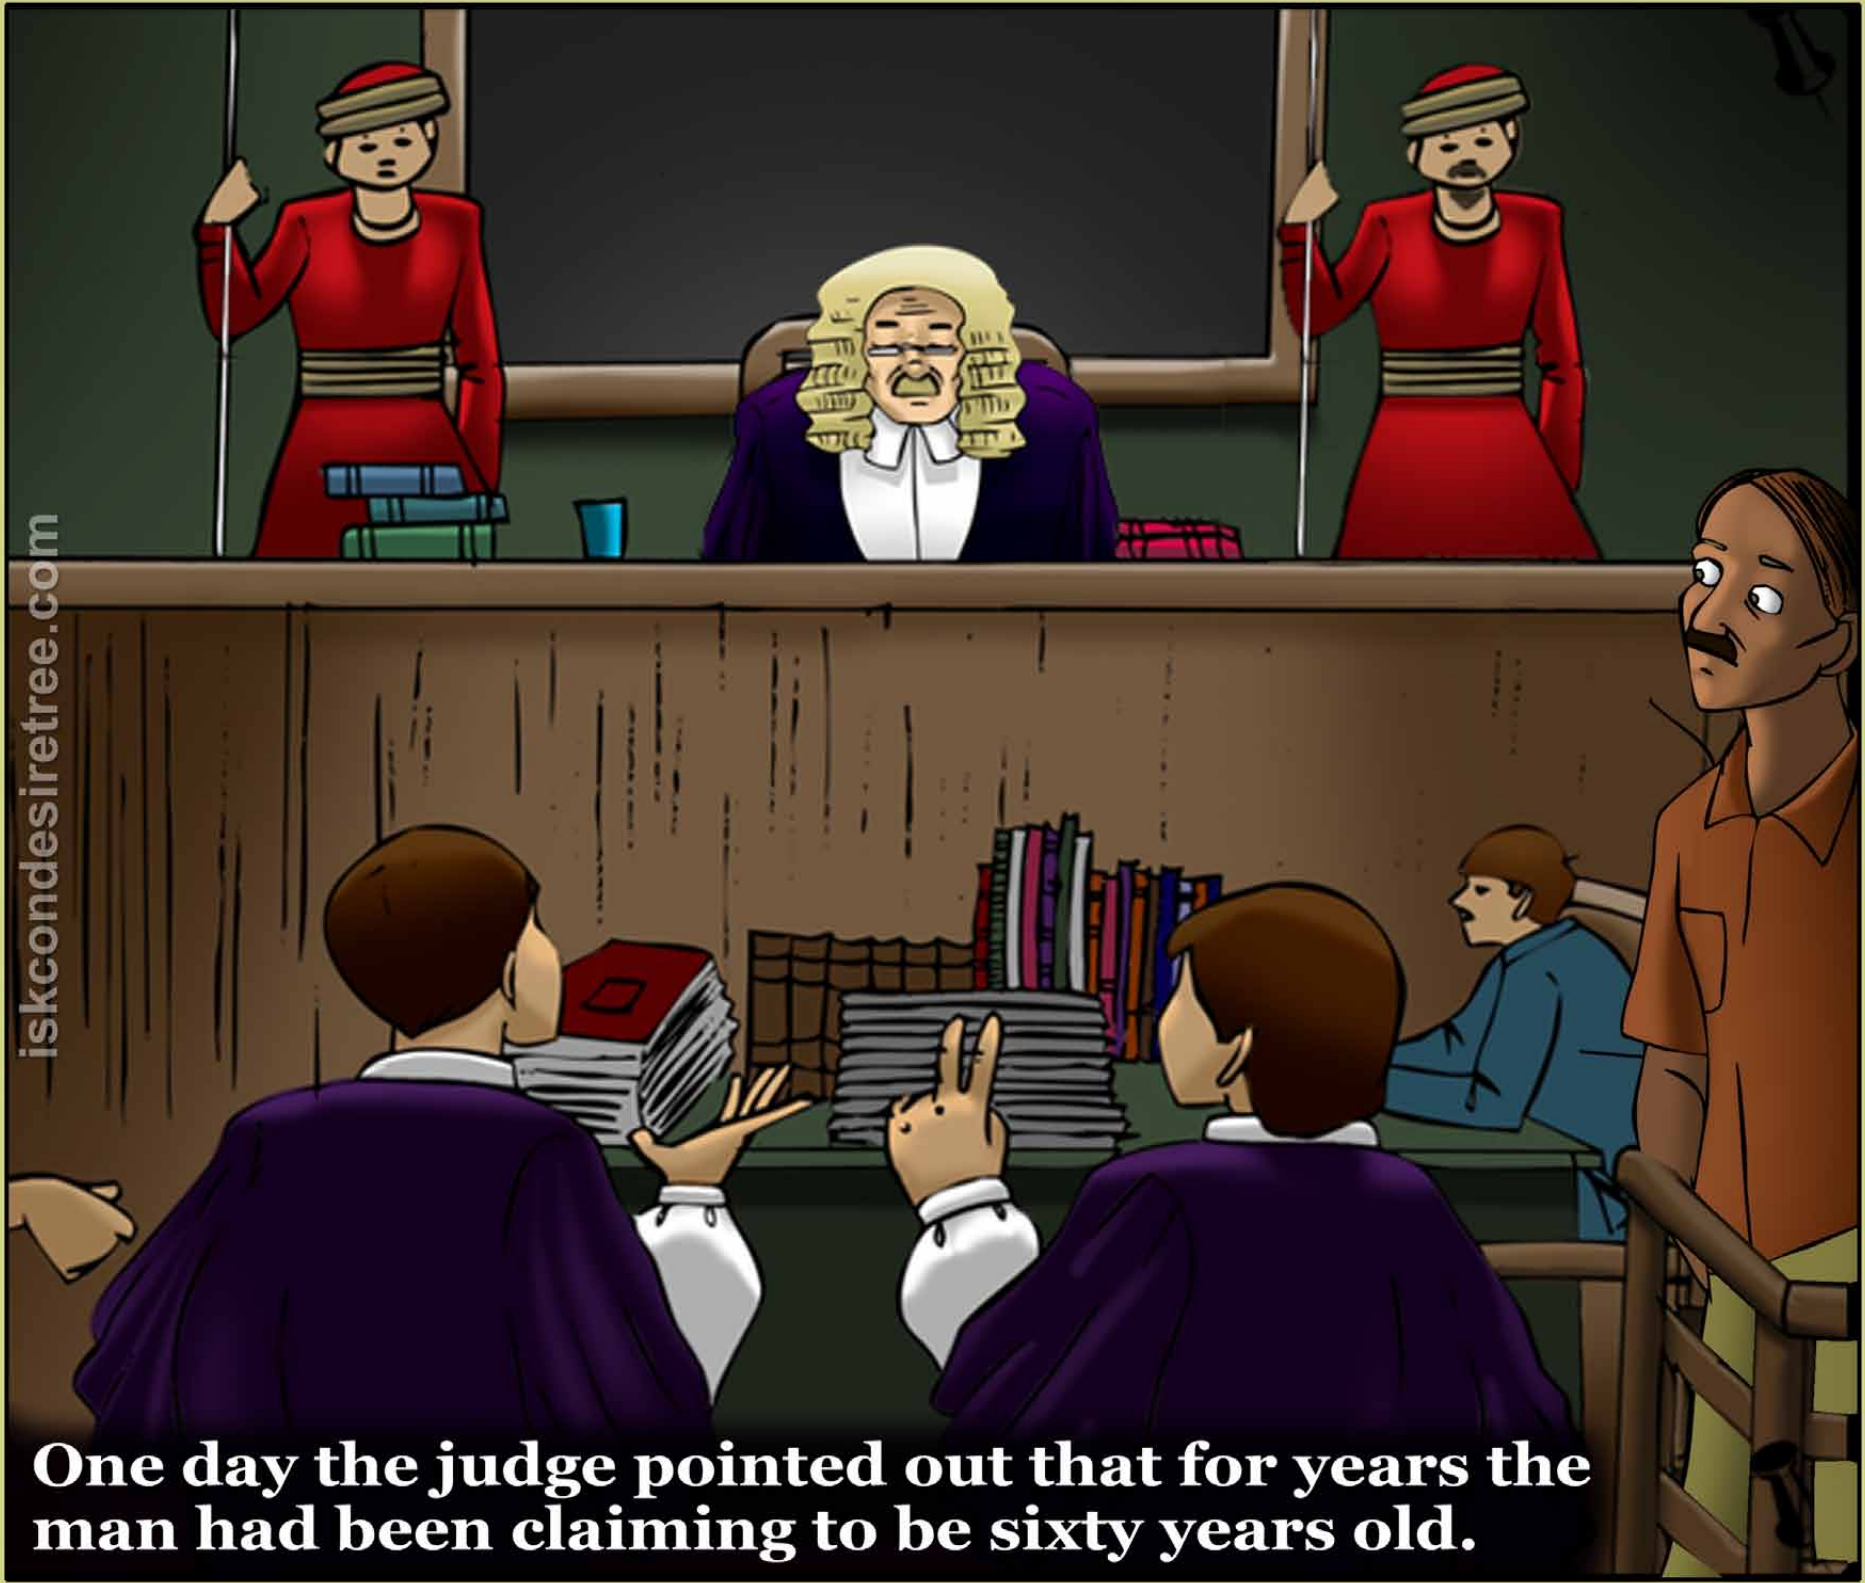

And for this he would receive a fee.

iskcondesiretree.com

When being sworn in, the witness would always swear that his age was sixty years.

iskcondesiretree.com

One day the judge pointed out that for years the man had been claiming to be sixty years old.

The witness replied that...

A man should not change his word of honour.

MORAL:

Cunning people and fools misuse and misquote the words of wisdom.