

Whom to beg from?

Once a poor hermit went to the palace of Nawab for alms.

I wish to see the Nawab

You will find him
in prayer room.
Go silently.

The hermit went to the prayer room and heard the Nawab praying.

I will wait
for him till he finishes
his prayers.

The Nawab was just completing his prayers....

My Lord! I beg you to please bless
me with money..

Oh! I have come to a wrong place.

He turned away.

You came to me
with some purpose.
Why are you
now going away?

I came to
you for begging
for some money.

So?

But I saw you kneeling
and begging to the Lord for money. So why should I beg from a beggar. Better
I beg from Lord!

Moral: Even if you have material desires, beg from Lord - the source of everything.
