

Brave Hanuman in Lanka

Hanuman sets off to Lanka in search of mother Sita, to fulfill the desire of Lord Rama.

Hanuman crosses the vast ocean with great swiftness.

When he lands in Lanka, he kills the demoness Lankini who was guarding the golden city of Lanka.

Hanuman enters Lanka and marvels at its beauty.

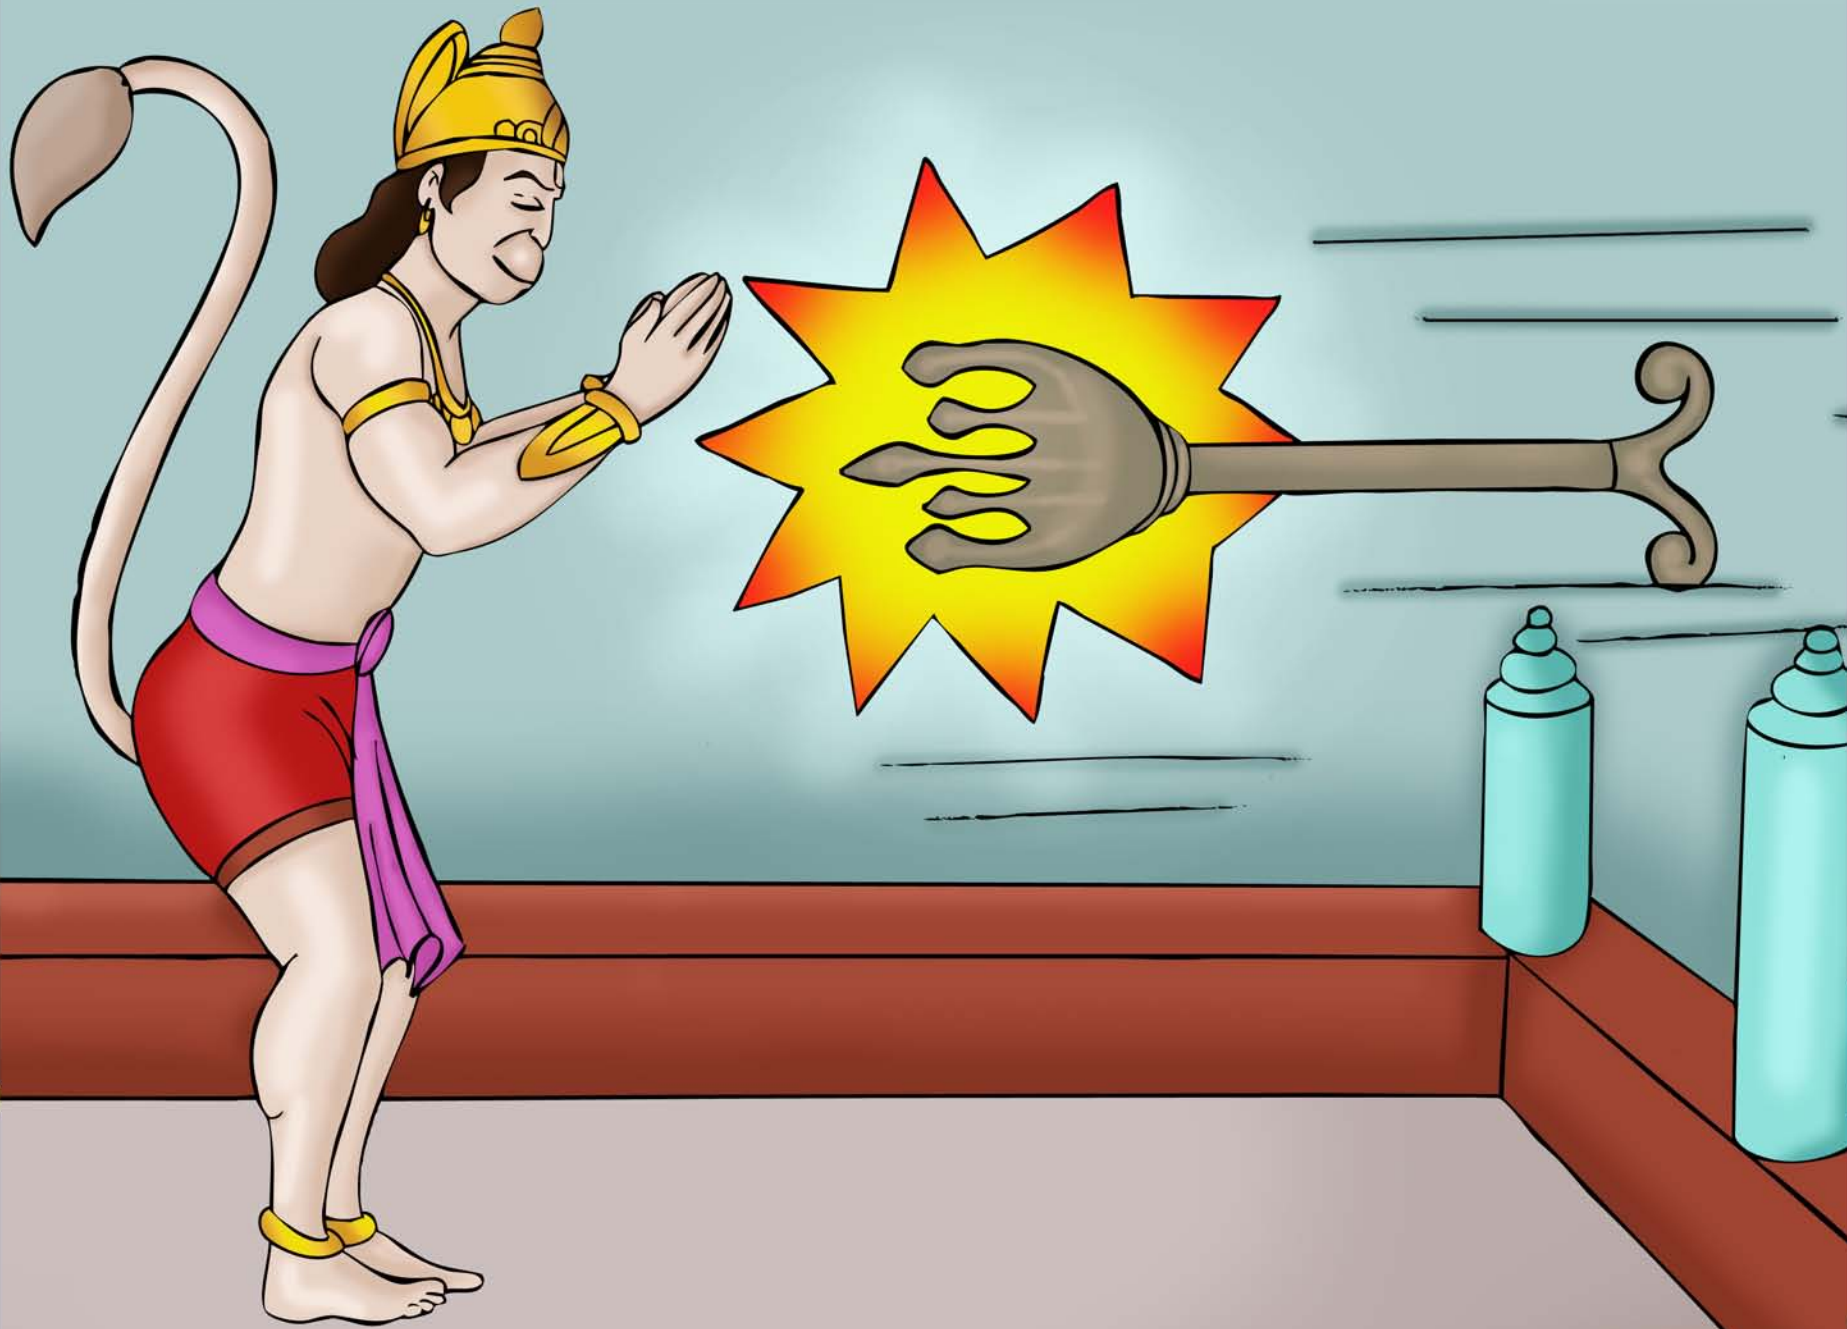

He finds mother Sita in captivity, in the Ashoka Vatika garden. Hanuman reveals his identity to her and hands over the ring of Lord Rama.

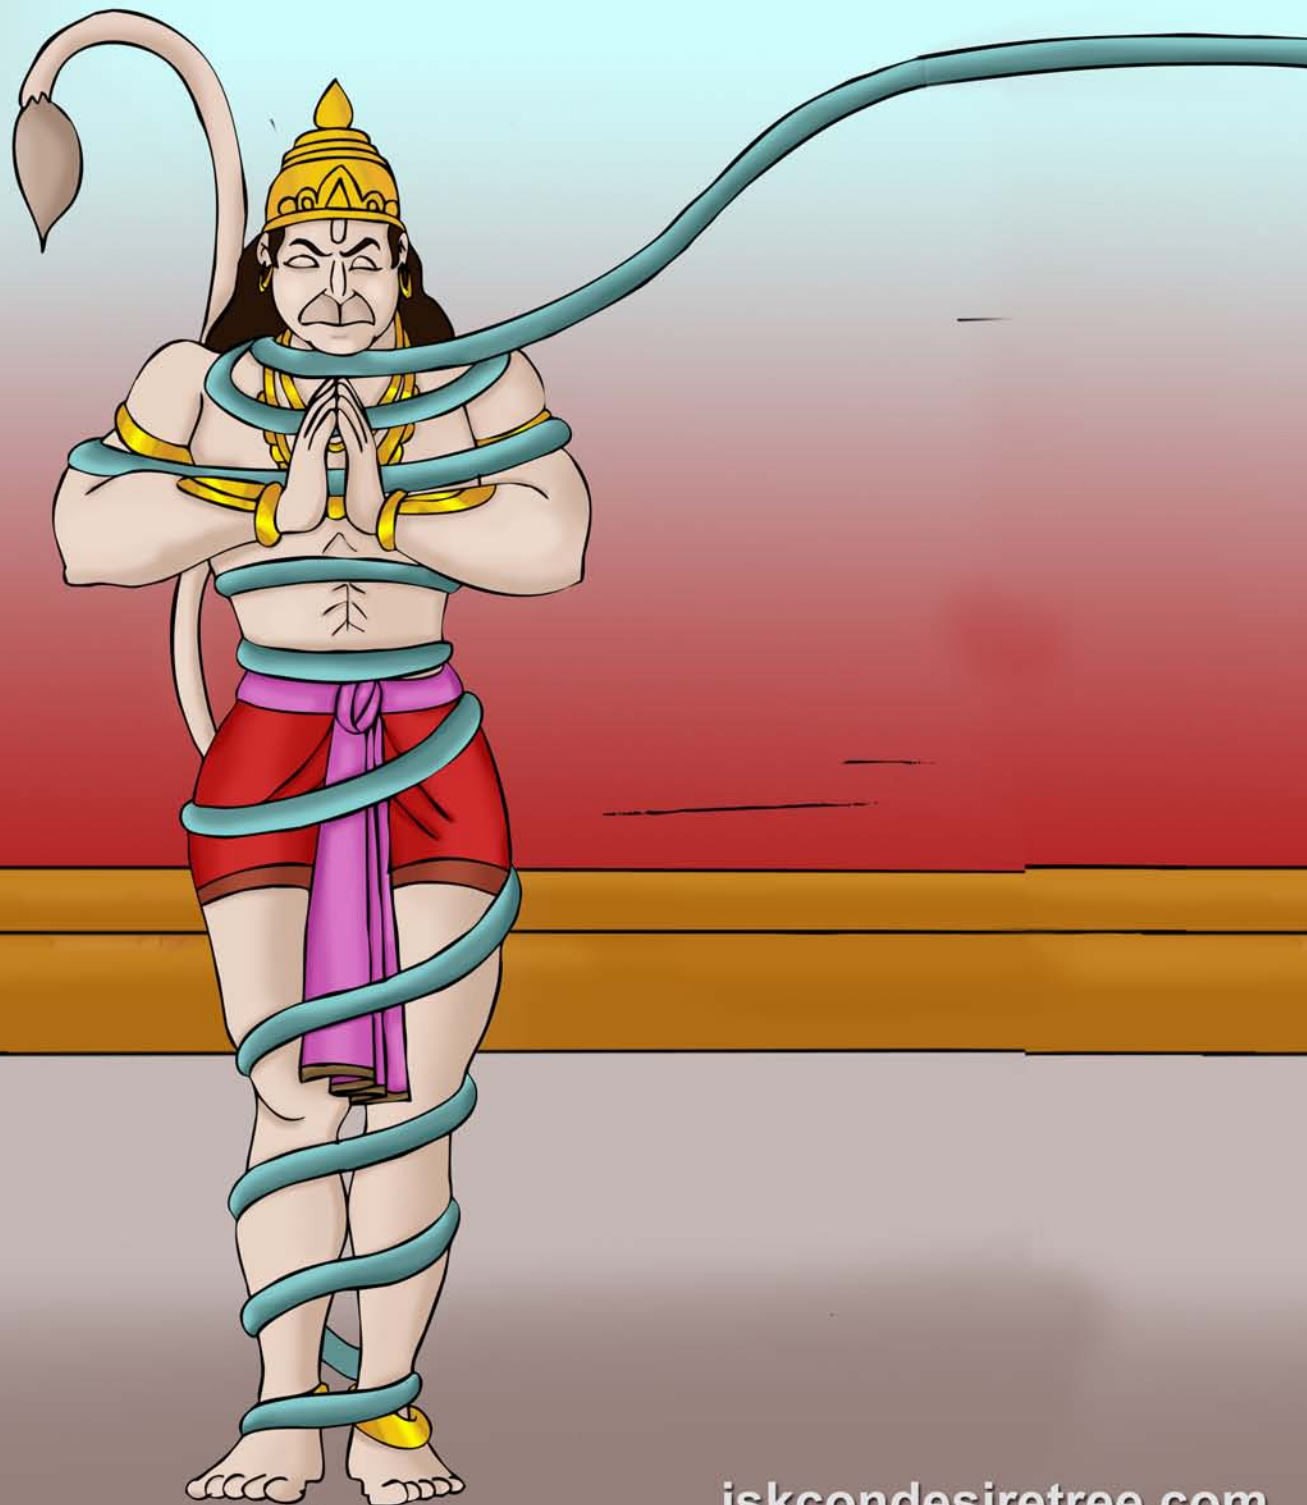

After meeting mother Sita, Hanuman begins to wreak havoc in Lanka. He begins uprooting trees and killing many Rakshasas, including Jambumali and Aksha Kumar.

To subdue Hanuman, Ravana's son Indrajit uses the Brahmastra.

Though immune to the effects of this weapon, Hanuman out of respect for Lord Brahma allows himself be bound.

Hanuman then conveys Lord Rama's message of warning to return mother Sita safely. He also informs Ravana that Lord Rama would be willing to forgive him if he returns mother Sita honourably.

Enraged, Ravana orders Hanuman's tail to be lit afire.
